The False Friend Myla Goldberg

i love the words of myla goldberg. and i love stories about childhood mysteries. this is a quick one, but well worth it. when i went to the "RIP, borders" sale, this was the only book in my head on my "look for it" list. and i saw it and squealed, and it helped to dispel the black cloud of gloom over the staff and other shoppers. it did. the basics: celia, at eleven, was best friends with a ...

The False Friend by Myla Goldberg - Goodreads

The False Friend The False Friend is a good psychological mystery. It is well written and I liked it better than Bee Season which is another book by Myla Goldberg. The book deals with relationships - boyfriend, parents, and middle school friends from 20 years ago. It would be a good book for book groups. I was disappointed with the ending.
