Camden Berry E202 Ms Nagel This quarter I read The Scar boy by Len Vlahos. This book is about a boy named Harry Jones. Harry is deformed due to a childhood tragedy. Hairy was tied to a tree in a storm as a kid by older bullies. The tree he was tied to was struck by lightning and was severely burned on his head, face, chest, and neck.

The Scar Boys (The Scar Boys, #1) - Goodreads

Vlahos' debut has all the hallmarks of a coming-of-age story, but the first-person narration is compelling enough that it still feels fresh. Harry's obsession with punk music will appeal to music lovers, while his journey to accept himself for who he is—scarred face and all—is one that will likely resonate with any teen trying to find his way in the world.
